

AUSTRALIAN DANCE THEATRE

Australian Dance Theatre has thrilled sellout audiences around the world with performances of cutting edge dance. Now NORPA brings the internationally acclaimed company, performing Be Your Self Redux, to our region for the first time.

In Garry Stewart's Be Your Self Redux, audiences are engaged in a complex dialogue in which they are compelled to explore what makes you 'you'. The athletic dancers of ADT are transformed into erupting, powerful, and emotional entities, projecting startling physical images.

Arising from conversations with a Buddhist monk, neurologist, physiologist and literary academic, Stewart situates the body at the centre of his inquiry and reveals that despite our civilising cultural influences, the body is still a force to be reckoned with.
