

THEATRE FOR SCHOOLS WORKSHOPS

NORPA SEASON 2019

We believe no one has more energy or imagination than kids.

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING

A BELL SHAKESPEARE PRODUCTION

REGIONAL ACCESS WORKSHOP

Regional students booked in to see Much Ado About Nothing are eligible to participate in Regional Access Workshops.

Designed to prepare students for the production, these practical, 75-minute workshops guide students through the plot, key characters, themes, scene work, design, and insights into the production itself.

JOHN BELL SCHOLARSHIP

Students from regional schools across Australia are eligible to audition for the John Bell Scholarship. A life-changing opportunity for budding performers, three students will be selected to spend one incredible week training with Bell Shakespeare.

Auditions take the form of 15-minute masterclasses with a Bell Shakespeare artist, workshopping text and receiving feedback on performance.

Three students will receive one week of training and ongoing mentorship from Bell Shakespeare. They will undertake acting masterclasses with Bell Shakespeare artists, observe rehearsals, see live theatre and perform their winning monologue for John Bell, Artistic Director Peter Evans and a Bell Shakespeare cast.

NORPA SEASON 2019

ROALD DAHL'S THE TWITS

PRESENTED BY SPARE PARTS PUPPET THEATRE

MAKE A "JUNK" MUSICAL INSTRUMENT WORKSHOP

Spare Parts Puppet Theatre are bringing Junk Musical Instrument workshops — ideal for primary school children with a developing interest in craft and play. The workshop encourages children to work collaboratively and aims to demonstrate what can be achieved when working in a team.

The Twits is full of secret musical instruments that make incredible and whacky sounds. Though they may seem fantastical, these instruments are actually super simple to make using collected items such as bottles, rubber gloves, rice, toilet rolls and rubber bands — participants can make their own maracas, guitars, tuba phones, tambourines or even jingle bells! Two highly skilled performers from The Twits will have children brainstorming, creating, making and performing their own fabulous instruments like the ones used in the show.
